

Doctorate School, Università IUAV Venezia

Urbanism in times of insurgency. Advocating for the just city in the 21st century.

16th - 17th July 2015 | Aula Tafuri, Ca Badoer | Venice

Masterclass curated by Matteo Basso, Iolanda Bianchi, Andrea Curtoni, Verena Lenna, Giulia Mazzorin as part of the PhD in Urbanism, with the collaboration of the PhD in Regional Planning and Public Policies, coordinator: Prof. Paola Viganò

Thursday, 16th July

1st panel | Lost in translation? Comparing advocating processes across the Ocean

09.30 - 10.00 opening and introduction

10.00 - 10.50 Pier Luigi Crosta

10.50 - 11.05 coffee break

11.05 - 11.55 Cristina Bianchetti

12.00 - 13.15 open debate

13.15 - 14.30 lunch break

2nd panel | A weak end. The relationship of advocacy planning with social movements and counterculture: tools, forms and results

14.30 - 14.45 introduction

14.45 - 15.35 Caroline Maniaque

15.40 - 16.30 Emanuel Giannotti

16.30 - 16.50 coffee break

16.50 - 18.30 closing debate

Friday, 17th July

3rd panel | Contemporary practices: new forms of public, roles and forms of regulation

09.30 - 09.45 introduction

09.45 - 10.35 Patrizia Di Monte e Ignacio Grávalos

10.35 - 11.25 Benoit Moritz

11.25 - 11.40 coffee break

11.40 - 12.30 Alessandra Quarta

12.30 - 13.30 open debate

13.30 - 14.30 lunch break

4th panel | Contemporary practices: framing change, in between actions and policies

14.30 - 14.45 introduction

14.45 - 15.35 Stalker

15.35 - 16.25 Teddy Cruz and Fonna Forman

16.25 - 16.45 coffee break

16.45 - 17.35 Robert Beauregard

17.35 - 19.00 final debate