INVITATION TO ATTEND

WELCOME TO MELBOURNE 2010 – KNOWLEDGE CITIES WORLD SUMMIT,
HOSTED BY THE CITY OF MELBOURNE AND THE WORLD CAPITAL INSTITUTE
FROM 16-19 NOVEMBER AT THE MELBOURNE CONVENTION CENTRE.

'Knowledge' is a resource, which relies on the past for a better future.

In the 21st century, more than ever before, cities around the world rely on the knowledge of their citizens, their institutions, their firms and enterprises. Knowledge assists in attracting investment, qualified labour, students and researchers. Knowledge also creates local life spaces and professional milieus, which offer quality of life to the citizens seeking to cope with the challenges of modern life in a competitive world.
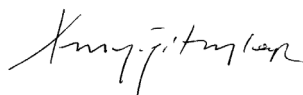

Integrating knowledge-based development in urban strategies and policies, beyond the provision of schools and locations for higher education, has become a new ambitious arena of city politics.

Coming from theory to practice, and bringing together the knowledge stakeholders in a city and preparing joint visions for the knowledge city is a new challenge for city managers. It requires visionary power, creativity, holistic thinking, the willingness to cooperate with all groups of the local civil society, and the capability to moderate communication processes to overcome conflicts and to develop joint action for a sustainable future.

This timely summit makes an important reminder that knowledge is the key notion in 21st Century development. Considering this notion, the summit aims to shed light on the multi-faceted dimensions and various scales of operation of the 'knowledge city' and 'knowledge-based development' paradigms.

At this summit, the theoretical and practical maturing of knowledge-based development paradigms will be advanced through the interaction between leading academic's theories and the practical models and strategies of practitioners' and policy makers' drawn form around the world.

We cordially welcome you to Melbourne 2010 – The Third Knowledge City World Summit, which will provide an inspiring platform for intercultural learning and the exchange of ideas and experiences.

KNOWLEDGE TOURS

Tours depart from Melbourne Convention and Exhibiton Centre Porte-cochere 1300 – 1700 hours

MELBOURNE IS VERY MUCH A KNOWLEDGE CITY AT WORK. THE MELBOURNE 2010 – KNOWLEDGE CITIES WORLD SUMMIT ORGANISING COMMITTEE HAS CREATED A SERIES OF KNOWLEDGE TOURS TO PROVIDE DELEGATES WITH THE OPPORTUNITY TO VISIT SOME OF THE KNOWLEDGE HUBS OF MELBOURNE.

ARTS AND CULTURAL PRECINCT

Melbourne is the artistic and cultural capital of Australia. Every day of every year is filled with arts festivals, gallery showings, live theatre seasons and musical extravaganzas. Whether it's a rock concert, an art exhibition, opera or a symphony performance you desire, you will find it in Melbourne.

During this walking tour of Melbourne, the heritage and architecture of Melbourne is everywhere you turn, revealing the city's colourful and diverse history through its buildings. Participants will visit the Melbourne Recital Hall which recently won the National Award for Public Buildings at the 2009 Council of Australia Rider Levett Bucknall Awards for Innovation and Excellence, the Australian Centre for Moving Image, a unique institution of Federation Square which celebrates, explores and promotes the cultural and creative richness of the moving image in all its forms – film, television and digital culture, and finally tour participants will be given the opportunity for an all encompassing tour of the iconic Arts Centre, the focal point of performing arts in Victoria.

MONASH PRECINCT

Not only does this precinct house one of Australia's great international universities, Monash University, an energetic and dynamic university committed to quality education and research, the Monash precinct is also home to the Australian Synchrotron and Australia's first and only Melbourne Centre for Nanofabrication.

Join this tour to witness how the Australia Synchrotron highly intense light beam, ranging from infrared to hard x-rays, can be used to gain a better understanding of the molecular structure of materials and how the Melbourne Centre of Nanofabrication provides the means to produce complex micro and nano-science based demonstration devices and integrated systems in the environmental and medical sensors areas including microfluidics and basis micro electromechanical systems (MEMS) and the solar cell and energy areas.

PARKVILLE PRECINCT

Melbourne city is a natural hub for university campuses. This tour will focus on The University of Melbourne and RMIT (Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology) campuses. RMIT has played a significant role as an innovative, global university of technology with an international reputation for excellence in work-relevant education and high quality research and engagement with the needs of industry and community. RMIT opens its doors for an inclusive tour of its Melbourne campus.

The University of Melbourne Parkville, once a quaint campus made up of gothic architecture and Victorian buildings, is leading the way in university development with new infrastructure being built yearly. The latest addition is the Bio21 Institute is a multidisciplinary research centre, specialising in medical, agricultural and environmental biotechnology. See where the latest innovation and research in biotechnology is happening which will lead to the improvements in health and environment worldwide.

SOCIAL PROGRAM

DISCOVER MELBOURNE

THERE'S A LOT TO LOVE ABOUT MELBOURNE, INCLUDING A HUGE CHOICE OF RESTAURANTS AND CAFES, FUNKY LANEWAYS, FABULOUS SHOPPING AND DIVERSE INNER CITY PRECINCTS. HERE'S SOME INFORMATION TO HELP YOU MAKE THE MOST OF YOUR VISIT.

DINING

City restaurants are known for delicious food at fair prices and local residents demand nothing less. Many Melbourne precincts are associated with food, from the Greek atmosphere of Lonsdale Street and the Italian character of Carlton's Lygon Street to the wide array of Chinese restaurants along Little Bourke Street in Chinatown.

Melbourne also offers exceptional fine dining, served with passion and panache at restaurants marrying modern Australian cuisine with European and Asian techniques. Take a stroll along the Yarra River to Southgate, or a quick tram ride to Docklands, where you can enjoy striking views of the city skyline and the waterfront while you dine.

SHOPPING

While choice is a huge attraction, the joy of shopping in Melbourne is also about atmosphere. A web of broad boulevards, narrow streets, enticing laneways and gorgeous arcades make shopping in the city an absolute pleasure.

Leading international fashion labels can be found on tree-lined Collins Street, while nearby Little Collins Street has a great selection of cutting-edge designers. Funky streets and laneways are a haven for small boutiques specialising in Australian designers, jewellery and accessories.

Melbourne boasts flagship department stores Myer and David Jones, both in the Bourke Street Mall. For a wide range of designers and retailers under one roof, visit retail centres such as GPO Melbourne, Melbourne Central, Collinstwo3four, QV and Australia on Collins or DFO at South Wharf. Queen Victoria Market offers souvenirs, clothes, crafts and fresh foods.

BARS AND NIGHTLIFE

Throughout Melbourne's boulevards and lanes you'll discover some fabulous little spots for getting together with colleagues and friends. Once-forgotten warehouses and laneways have emerged as funky new venues while the city pulses with cocktail lounges, vibrant pubs, underground dance dens and live music venues.

Recline on an old couch in a retro lounge bar or indulge in a pot of beer in a pub. And, of course the city is open all hours so Melbourne is the ultimate party town.

ARTS AND CULTURE

Melbourne is home to world class arts and culture. The NGV International hosts an outstanding collection of international artwork, including major touring exhibitions, and The Ian Potter Centre: NGV Australia at Federation Square is the home of Indigenous and Australian art.

Nestled in the city's laneways are many commercial galleries, craft and design outlets. A variety of quirky public artworks add a sense of fun to the city's streets.

DISCOVER MELBOURNE

WATERFRONT

Melbourne's waterfront bustles day and night with people dining, strolling, exercising, shopping and boating. The city's focal point is the meandering Yarra River, lined with several fine dining and shopping precincts as well as world class sporting and arts venues, and stunning parks and gardens.

The city's newest living, working and visitor precinct is Melbourne Docklands, boasting a magnificent harbour, restaurants and bars and walking trails. Waterfront City has great shopping choices at Harbour Town and Costco.

MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THE CITY

For more information about what the city has to offer:

ACCOMMODATION
VENUES

ALL ACCOMMODATION VENUE RATES ARE INCLUSIVE OF AUSTRALIAN GST

Special accommodation room rates have been negotiated for the event and, subject to availability, may apply to extended stays. To take advantage of these savings, please read the following information carefully and complete the accommodation booking section on the registration form at the end of this brochure.

Event Planners Australia is unable to accept new bookings or changes to existing room bookings after the following release date: 1600 hours, Australian Eastern Standard Time (AEST), Friday 8 October 2010

From 1600 hours, Friday 8 October 2010 onwards, bookings should be made directly with the hotel or via an accommodation reservation website.

> Rates are per room per night, in Australian dollars, and includes Australian GST

> Room numbers are limited so please ensure you book well before the release date

> Accommodation cannot be booked unless credit card details are received with your registration form. This information will be passed on to the hotel to secure your booking. The hotel may process the debit immediately or wait until check-out

> If charges are to be the responsibility of a third party, e.g. the guest's company, please provide the organisers with a letter from the third party stating what charges are to be covered, e.g. accommodation only, meals, mini bar, phone, fax, internet, laundry, all charges, etc

> A tax invoice/receipt will be issued by the hotel on check-out

> Cancellations and alterations up to 1600 hours 8 October 2010, are made by Event Planners and will incur a booking change fee of up to AUD33

> Guests wishing to cancel or alter bookings after 1600 hours (AEST) on 8 October 2010 should contact the hotel directly. These, and "no-shows", may incur penalties at the hotel's discretion, possibly up to 100% of the accommodation stay

> Cancellation policies for individual hotels are available on the event website and will be included in your confirmation letter. Please ensure you are familiar with your chosen hotel's cancellation policy

> Check in prior to 1400 hours is not guaranteed and is at the hotel's discretion, should you wish to guarantee early check you must book and pay for the previous night

> Hotels will require an imprint of your credit card at check-in for any incidentals

> If you wish to check-in after 1700 hours you must indicate your arrival time on the form to avoid a "no-show" room release penalty.
