Cultural identities

- 4 Differentiation of cultural identities is more important than integration for the understanding and tackling of social conflicts
- 4 Culture is a challenge because it leaves physical and psychological traces to be analysed
- 4 The role and perspective of planners within this process is changing: besides physical skills they need non-physical qualities, such as
  - 4 openness: dialogue, communication, participation, cooperation, democracy
  - 4 fantasy, creativity, courage to experiment new solutions
  - 4 responsibility and respect for individuality
